Paris-Panthéon-Assas University offers Master's level programs specifically designed for international students and known as Diplômes Supérieurs d'Université (D.S.U.). This type of legal education is particularly well-suited to the specific needs of international students and consists of four types of teaching:

1. > Introduction to French public and private law courses.
2. > Study direction and methodology (training in French legal exercises).
3. > Undergraduate and/or first-year Master's level courses (lectures and tutorials) depending on the chosen specialization.
4. > Advanced French language courses.

OBJECTIVES

Enable international students to pursue a legal education while improving their proficiency in French.

Enhance their knowledge of French law within the offered specializations.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

To be eligible for admission, candidates must meet the following criteria:

1. Hold a degree in law obtained from a foreign institution that is recognized as equivalent to a French Master 1.
2. Hold one of the following French language diplomas (level B2 minimum):
